Financial Assistance Scheme for Post-secondary Students (2021/22)
Application for Review of Financial Assistance

Important Notes:

- Application for review for 2021/22 will only be considered if submitted before the following deadlines:
 - Within three weeks from the date of issue of the notification of result; or
 - On or before 31.3.2022whichever is later.
- Applicant and his/her sibling (if applicable) may choose to accept the financial assistance, if any offered under Financial Assistance Scheme for Post-secondary Students (FASP) / Tertiary Student Finance Scheme - Publicly-funded Programmes (TSFS) first without waiting for the result of the application for review. However, in the course of processing the application for review, if it was found by the Student Finance Office (SFO) that the amount of assistance provided in the original assessment was higher than your and your sibling's (if applicable) actual entitlement, you and your siblings (if applicable) will be required to refund the overpaid amount upon demand.
- Only reviews of application results under FASP for 2021/22 are accepted. This form is NOT for appeals against rejection of applications due to omissions of information in applications.
- Only the medical expenses for family members with incapacity or chronic illness are deductible from family income for calculation of assistance. All other expenses (e.g. daily household expenses, tuition fee payment, loan repayments, contributions to relatives, etc.) are non-deductible.
- Applications for review can be submitted by one of the following ways:
